DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 1 provides for a polishing apparatus for polishing a substrate, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process (of polishing said substrate), it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Claim 1 is also rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, because it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced, which raises an issue of indefiniteness under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph. Ex parte Erlich, 3 USPQ2d 1011 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1986).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-8 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Art Unit: 1765

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant discloses a novel polishing apparatus, wherein the improvement consists of a ditched ring removably attached to the bottom surface of a non-rotary cylindrical actuator. The prior art of record does not disclose an apparatus that comprises a ditch type ring attached to an actuator.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
